

Seminar: Good Mentoring Conversations

Content: Good Mentoring Conversations.

Esther Cavett (Director of the Cityparents Mentoring Scheme) and Monica Relph (Senior Client and Programme Manager, Moving Ahead) will present a seminar on the Power of Good Mentoring Conversations, covering what mentoring is, how mentoring can benefit us, both at work and with our families, the essential attributes of a good mentoring relationship, how to develop skill in having good mentoring conversations and some important features of formal mentoring schemes.

The seminar will be of interest to:

- * Individuals who wish to develop their mentoring skills, whether as mentor or mentee, in their daily lives
- * HR professionals considering the value of mentoring within their organizations
- * Cityparents members considering joining the Cityparents mentoring scheme (for more details click here) which opens its next window for applications on 13 March 2017 (closing 24 March).

Esther and Monica have long experience of mentoring in a variety of work contexts. Esther is an executive coach trained in psychological coaching. She writes regularly on coaching topics and was a senior Capital Markets partner in a magic circle law firm. Monica is the relationship manager for Cityparents at Moving Ahead (previously Women Ahead). A former international athlete, she competed for the Great Britain Rowing Team for eight years before turning her focus to a career in learning and development. Moving Ahead assist Cityparents in the matching and administration of the Cityparents Mentoring Scheme, which was founded in 2014 and has since had over 1000 participants.
